Aero Club Expects to Hold Races in Two Weeks.

CHICAGO, May 21.-Airship races CHICAGO, May 21.—Airship races under the auspices of the Aero Club of Chicago, will be held within two weeks at the grounds at Sixty-fourth street and South Park avenue. This was decided at a meeting of the club at the auditorium last night, and the executive committee, which meets today, will perfect arrangements.

During the meeting last night, Horace Wild, builder of the airship Eagle, issued a challenge to any and all aeronauts for a race with a wager of $10,000 with a wager of $10,000 on the result. He suggested a course from the club grounds to the Logan monument or postoffice and return. Before the applause over this declaration had subsided Charles K. Hamilton, of New York, arose to accept it, and he was followed by Capt. William Mattery, of Chicago.

"BROOM OF THE STOMACH," SPINACH, NOW IN SEASON

"Ze broom of ze stomach." exclaims the Parisian. One of the most expert restaurateurs ever turned out by Charles Delmonico (and he turned out many) made a short culinary speech. The most abused of all American dishes is spinach. The French call it "epinards." The favorite breakfast of the Parisian epicure is "ocufs aux epinards"—eggs with spinach. It is the greatest restorer in spinach. It is the greatest restorer in the world after a night out. While it is not an absorbent like celery, and in no sense a herve tonic, it is the "vade mecum" of Monsteur Crapaud.
"I see men day after day, when the finest American spinach is set before them take up a crief and spake a whole finest American spinach is set before them, take up a cruet and shake a whole them, take up a cruet and shake a whole lot of vinegar over it. Now, the very thought of vinegar on spinach is enough to dive a man the scurvy. Spinach, properly cooked, is not a salad. It is a sort of vegetable meat. Some epicures like it chopped very fine after boiling, with a few slices of hard-boiled egg on top as a garnishment. Others want it served exactly as it comes out of the pot—hot, natural, like turnip greens or dandellons—and season it with a little salt, pepper, and butter. The only trouble with spinach is that it is so hard to clear of the grit the farmers sell with it. As it grows very close to the ground. As it grows very close to the ground, very shower loads it with mud and
